Yearbook Application
Please turn in to Ms. Pratt Room 2030

Name _____ Current Grade Level _____

Why do you want to be on the yearbook staff?

Rank the following in the order of your strongest ability. (1 is the BEST and 4 is the one you would need the most help with.)

_____ Writing stories

_____ Using a computer

_____ Talking to people you don't know

What classes or experiences have you had that will help you in producing the yearbook?

Do you prefer to work individually, or in a group? Why?

List any sports, clubs, or other extra-curricular activities that you are involved in:

How many days have you been absent this year?　　1-5　　　5-10　　　more than 10

Being on the Yearbook staff requires a lot of after-school work. You must be able to work well with others and to meet deadlines. You must also be able to work well under stress and be willing to talk to people you don't know. List three teachers who would believe you are up for this challenge:

_____

_____

Proofread the following and make corrections to spelling, grammar and punctuation:

Jorden's 2024 Legacy yearbook will be arriving in May. This all-color book has over 300 pages in it. Students were able to reserve there copy by making the 90$ payment. Before they can recieve their books, they will have to clear all library fines.

"We pre-sold over 1000 books," said adviser Cherl Pratt. "We might have a few extras to sell, but we won't know how many untilthe books arrive at the end of may."

Currently, students who are intrested in being on next years staff are completing applications. The staff will be limited to 25 students.
