Comprehensive Needs Assessment

Demographics

Demographics Summary

The demographics of Katy High School continues to be stable and does not change. The staff at Katy High School include 200 professional staff, 52 paraprofessionals, and 8 administrators. The student population is 46.7% White, 8.9% African American, 35.9% Hispanic, 4.9% Asian, and 3.2% Two or More Races. Additionally, the campus serves 33.2% economically disadvantaged students, 10.7% special education students, and 5.5% Limited English Proficient students.

Student Learning

Student Learning Summary

Katy High School has a diverse population. Under the Texas accountability system, students count in at least two and often times three categories. For the federal Annual Yearly Progress system, many KHS students can count in two to four categories. Because of our diversity and these overlapping categories the All students category has become a focus of concern indicator in STAAR English Reading and Writing, and Algebra I. The economy has also had an effect on our community. Numbers of Economically Disadvantaged students has remained steady. Students in this category are members of our Hispanic, African American, and White subpopulations. By concentrating on closing the achievement gap between Eco. Dis. and All Students, KHS has achieved improvement in this category. However, EOC results indicate that Eco Dis. continues to be a focus of concern. The Hispanic population continues to grow at KHS. Language and cultural concerns as well as a significant overlap with the Eco Dis sub group contribute to a focus of concern for our Hispanic students on the English I Reading and Writing, and Algebra I, STAAR tests. In previous years the African American population has not had enough students to count in the accountability systems but achievement on STAAR and TAKS testing showed a significant percentage of students in this sub group as at risk to not graduate because of failure to meet exit level testing requirements. LEP students struggle in all assessment areas. Scores indicate a 50% or less passing rate for state assessments for our LEP students. Special Education students have low passing rates for STAAR ELA, Math and Social Studies.

To meet the needs of our LEP students, every ELL student is placed in courses that will prepare him/her for the STAAR test for the current year (if eligible), in accordance with the student's individual graduation plan and LEP paperwork. All ELL students are placed with teachers who are ESOL certified. To the extent possible, these teachers have received training on SIOP strategies for ELL learners. ESOL staff and the assistant principal liaison monitor/identify all ELL students at KHS and notifies teachers/provides paperwork to teachers during the first two weeks of school. Staff development plans have been created to increase the number of certified teachers in key courses and to provide strategies training.

Student Learning Strengths

Katy High School continues to celebrate student success in numerous content, extra-curricular and co-curricular areas, at all levels, and in almost all student groups. The State accountability system has provided focus to areas of success and weakness at Katy High School. Teachers and Instructional Coaches continue to focus on helping students who have not completed aspects of required state assessment requirements to pass these tests and fulfill graduation requirements. For EOC re-testers, scores indicate interventions are working and students who are persistent have an excellent chance to receive their high school diploma. The accountability system indicates that there is significant work to be done by our Professional Learning Communities, particularly in the instruction of LEP and Special Education students. These teams have embraced this opportunity to construct assessments that are more rigorous, reliable and aligned with the state's End of Course Exams. In addition to their work on common assessments, PLC teams are working on developing quality first instruction that is aligned with the rigor of their assessments. Teachers continue to focus on the needs of individual students. This focus has stimulated growth in our understanding and utilization of differentiated instruction and the response to intervention process.

The success of Professional Learning Communities is based on the strength of the team members. The talent and commitment of the Katy High School faculty and staff is the key to our success. All of the faculty are highly qualified in their teaching assignments. The majority of our faculty members have extensive experience and training including advanced degrees. Many of our teachers who teach advanced placement courses have served as readers for the College Board AP exams. Our ACP teachers have had wonderful life experiences that they bring to their classrooms. Those experiences include connecting with students before they became certified teachers. Many worked with students in camps, tutoring in their subject, and through church-related activities. Our district has a wonderful mentoring program for 1st and 2nd year teachers. At KHS, we team our 1st year teachers with a veteran teacher and also hold professional development sessions with them once per six weeks to help them anticipate issues that arise during the course of the school year.

School Processes & Programs

School Processes & Programs Summary

Teachers are recruited to join the KHS team through recruiting job fairs, HR postings as well as word of mouth. Teachers new to the profession are given a mentor who meets with them a minimum of every six-weeks to answer questions and provide guidance. All teachers work in departmental teams as well as content-specific professional learning communities which allows staff members to support each other throughout the year. Teachers enjoy working at KHS as reflected by the number of teachers who have taught at KHS for 15+ years.

Over the past three years since COVID, KHS has seen a drop in our average daily attendance rate. While the rate did increase in the 2022-23 school year, it is still significantly lower than in years prior to COVID.

Perceptions

Perceptions Summary

KHS values its history and traditions. Many of our processes and procedures are based on years of doing things the right way. The students and parents of KHS are highly valued and their input is solicited. It is the goal of KHS to make all students feel welcome and comfortable.
